Snapshots from a suspended moment within a global pandemic: a select group of artists, architects, and thinkers with feet in both Vienna and Los Angeles consider the shape of a future in flux—a spontaneous record in form of a brief written or visual statement to capture an outlook in the future flavored by this very moment in suspense, sheltered in place, and socially distant.

Andrea LENARDIN, born in Austria, lives and works as an architect and creative director in Los Angeles. Peter NOEVER, Vienna-based curator, designer, founder of the MAK Center for Art and Architecture, Los Angeles.
